

Sunrise Elementary PBS Lesson Plan

Skill: Use Appropriate Voice Levels

Setting: All Settings

Read Aloud to Students:

Today we are going to discuss the procedures of using appropriate voice levels.

Teacher Models for Students:

Example: Teacher models how to use appropriate voice levels in the classroom during independent work, partner work, group work, presentations, and discusses how to use them in all other school settings. Teacher will model all five voice levels and when they are appropriate to use.

Nonexample: Teacher will use inappropriate voice levels in different settings.

Example: Teacher models all appropriate voice levels to use in different settings.

Student Role Play:

Students model all appropriate voice levels to use in different settings with teacher feedback.

After the Lesson:

Allow time to discuss further and answer questions. If any problems arise, re-teach the lesson or seek additional resources.
